MAGAZINES NOW AVAILABLE IN OVERDRIVE/LIBBY

The Durham Public Library has moved our digital magazines from RBdigital to the Libby app. You will continue to be able to browse, borrow, and enjoy all the same great magazines from ZINIO you loved in the RBdigital app; now available alongside ebooks and audiobooks on Libby, the award-winning reading app, or by visiting OverDrive.

A sampling of digital magazines available include: The Economist, National Geographic, Bon Appetit, Country Living, Runner's World, Cosmopolitan, Vanity Fair, and over 3,000 more.

Digital magazines have no wait lists or holds, do not count towards checkout limits and provide readers the option to renew their selections. Durham patrons can also download magazines to Libby for offline use. Readers can browse lists of magazines within the app and search by format to find available titles.

Craft Corner

Spring Chick Paper Craft

All you need for this craft is paper, tape, and glue!
We used a mix of scrapbook and construction paper, but any will do!

1. Cut the paper into two even strips that are 3" x 12".
2. Accordion fold each strip.
3. Glue the two ends of each strip together to form a round column.
4. Gently push the column down to form a circle. Put a strong tape on the back to hold it in place.
5. Cut out a wing and glue or tape it to the front of the circle.
6. Cut out a beak and an eye and glue them to the side of the circle.

You've made a paper chick!

We'd love to see it! Email a picture to lredfield@durhamlibrary.org or tag us on Facebook or Instagram!

I Hope You're Listening by Tom Ryan

In her small town, seventeen year-old Delia "Dee" Skinner is known as the girl who wasn't taken. Ten years ago, she witnessed the abduction of her best friend, Sibby. And though she told the police everything she remembered, it wasn't enough. At night, Dee deals with her guilt by becoming someone else: the Seeker, the voice behind the popular true crime podcast Radio Silent, which features missing persons cases and works with online sleuths to solve them. Recommended for any fans of true crime podcasts and documentaries.

The Left-Handed Booksellers of London By Garth Nix

In a slightly alternate London in 1983, Susan Arkshaw is looking for her father, a man she has never met. Crime boss Frank Thringley might be able to help her, but Susan doesn't get time to ask Frank any questions before he is turned to dust by the prick of a silver hatpin in the hands of the outrageously attractive Merlin. Merlin is a young left-handed bookseller (one of the fighting ones), who with the right-handed booksellers (the intellectual ones), are an extended family of magical beings who police the mythic and legendary Old World when it intrudes on the modern world, in addition to running several bookshops.

Patti's Must See DVDs

I recently watched Miss Scarlet & the Duke, a 6-part PBS mystery series. Eliza Scarlet (played by Kate Phillips) is a female detective, which is unheard of in Victorian England. She takes over her father's detective agency when he unexpectedly passes away and finds herself butting heads with William Wellington (also known as "the Duke") who is an Inspector with the Scotland Yard. Kate struggles to make a name for herself while fighting against female stereotypes of that time.

I thoroughly enjoyed watching this series. The characters are compelling and well-acted. There are some familiar faces- Kate Phillips played Princess Mary in the Downton Abbey Movie, Linda Shelby in Peaky Blinders, and Venetia Scott in The Crown. Another familiar face is Andrew Gower who plays Rupert Parker, a wealthy gentleman whose mother is trying to marry him off to Eliza. I knew I recognized him and then remembered he played "Bonnie Prince" Charles Stuart in Outlander. It was also fun to see Kevin Doyle as Henry Scarlet (Eliza's father) who was Mr. Molesley in Downton Abbey.

If you haven't had the opportunity to watch Miss Scarlet & the Duke, the library has 2 copies you can check out!

Fire in Paradise: An

by Alastair Gee and Dani Anguiano

This book has in its title “the indispensable retirement guide” and it is. It was originally published in 2016 and updated for 2020. I highly recommend this book for any age, whether you are a young adult, middle age or getting ready for your golden years, the information in this book will help you plan for a successful retirement.

From social security strategies to finding health insurance to stretching your savings to last for many years, this book has it all.

This is a fascinating look at the 2018 Camp Fire, which was the most destructive wildfire in California history. The authors explain not only the events of the fire itself, but the history that led to the disaster and the continuing consequences. The book reads like a thriller, but also poses important questions about personal and community responsibilities, long-range infrastructure planning, and what our society values most.

"The Crooked Hinge"
by John Dickson Carr

I am just finishing up the book The Crooked Hinge by John Dickson Carr. It's got a couple of fun characters and a plot line that even goes back to some 'fictional' people who sailed on the Titanic. An ancient automaton also figures in the story. Who is the true heir to the Farnleigh estate? No one knows and the story that follows brings you plenty of red herrings and a grumpety (my made up word) private investigator named Dr. Gideon Fell. This mystery, originally published in 1938 has recently been reissued by Penzler Publishers and is but one of many titles from their American Mystery Classics selections. Our Assistant Director, Kim McNally, has curated a small collection here in our own mystery book section.

Some of the titles that we have here in Durham include:

The Case of the Careless Kitten, Erle Stanley Gardner

A Taste for Honey, H.F. Heard

Death from a Top Hat, Clayton Rawson

The Unsuspected, Charlotte Armstrong

And The Dutch Shoe Mystery, Ellery Queen

I have read four of the 5 above titles and enjoyed all of them. I think some of the 'old fashioned' mysteries can be a lot of fun. Cheers to Happy Mystery reading!
